

Lieut. Robb Makes Y. U. in Columbia's Success—Fordham Victorious, but N. Y. U. is a Victim of Soldier Onslaught

COLOMBIA ELEVEN DEFEATS AMHERST

Blue and White Matches Lieut. Robb Against Zink and Triumphs by 21 to 7.

FUMBLE HELPS LOSERS

Gives Them Their Touchdown—Houlahan's 35 Yard Dash Best of Game.

By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD.

Lieut. Robb, former Penn State star and now the brightest light on the Columbia eleven, took it upon himself yesterday at South Field to avenge last season's 14 to 6 defeat of the Blue and White by Amherst. He was successful in his endeavor, for he and his teammates hammered his way through the sons of Sir Jeffery for three touchdowns, with the addition of three goals that bounced off Stevens' toe. These rolled up 21 points for Columbia, while the Amherst team, led by Zink, Amherst's quarterback, scored only seven points.

Lieut. Robb was the apex of the Columbia attack, and there was no stopping him. He ran for 100 yards, including a 35 yard dash, which was the best of the game. He was also the key to the Columbia offense, for he was the one who broke through the Amherst defense. He was aided by Houlahan, who ran for 50 yards, and by Stevens, who kicked three goals.

The Amherst team, led by Zink, was no slouch either. They scored seven points, including a touchdown by Zink and a goal by Stevens. They were aided by a fumble by the Columbia team, which gave them the ball on the 10 yard line.

The game was a hard fought one, with both teams showing great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Columbia team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of Lieut. Robb and his teammates.

Y. U. Makes Brave Fight but Camp Merritt Wins

Local Eleven Outweighed 25 Pounds a Man and Battles Vainly Against Aggregation of Old Stars—Holds Score 11 to 0.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

By Jeffery, who snatched the ball and ran twenty-five yards for a touchdown. McGee, the former Amherst star, failed to kick the goal.

Shortly after play was resumed Kilgore intercepted a forward pass for Camp Merritt and carried the ball to the 35 yard line. A wicked assault, carried on mostly by Hillhouse, but aided by Heilmann and McGee, advanced the ball to the 5 yard line. Here N. Y. U. braced for a moment, but eventually Hillhouse smashed through for a second touchdown. This time McGee kicked the goal.

The play of Hillhouse, the former great Brown back, featured, and he towered over the smaller N. Y. U. lads. In fact, the Violet backfield looked like a bunch of boys playing with a bunch of old men. Hillhouse, Heilmann, McGee and Leslie, Friedman excelled for N. Y. U., making several fine runs, one of forty yards, which carried the ball to the 10 yard line. The rest of the game was a series of back and forth plays, with both teams showing great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Camp Merritt team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of Hillhouse and his teammates.

PRINCETON VARSITY SURPRISES FLIERS

Informals Play Like the "Real Thing" and Score Over Aviation School, 7 to 0.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Princeton, Nov. 2.—A touchdown and goal early in the game proved enough to win for the Princeton Informal football team by 7 to 0 from the Princeton Aviation School in Princeton stadium this afternoon. The victory gave the Informals first place in the league.

The all star "bushards" met more than 200 of the less experienced aviators in the Princeton stadium this afternoon. The victory gave the Informals first place in the league.

WESLEYAN FINDS WILLIAMS IS EASY

Rolls Up 19 Points to None by Strong Attack, Especially in Line Plunges.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Williamstown, Mass., Nov. 2.—Williams met defeat at the hands of Wesleyan in its great home contest of the year here today, the score being 15 to 0.

The Methodists had things their own way through a greater part of the contest, although Williams braced itself toward the finish and provided a stiff defensive battle. Wesleyan uncoiled a strong attack, which took Williams off its feet in the early periods.

Hayne and Boote were the mainstays of the Wesleyan attack, going through repeatedly for substantial gains. Boote also contributed to his team's success by kicking two goals from the 35-yard line. He kicked two goals from the field, one from the 35-yard line in the second period.

The Williams offense was ragged and showed the results of its limited practice. Joseph put up a whirlwind game for the Wesleyan defense, which was penalized for tripping and holding, but they soon steadied down to the grind.

Syracuse Football Team Beats Dartmouth Easily

Orange Overpowers the Green by 34 to 6 at Springfield—Salt City Backs Rip Through the Light Hanoverians Almost at Will

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Springfield, Mass., Nov. 2.—Syracuse won from Dartmouth today, 34 to 6. The Orange overpowered the Green from the start, as their line was like paper before the onslaught of the heavy Orange line. The Orange line was like a wall, and the Green line was like a bunch of boys playing with a bunch of old men.

CLINTON OUTPLAYS WHITE PLAINS HIGH

Rolls Up 25 Points to Opponents' None, but Might Have Had More.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Clinton, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Clinton outplayed White Plains High School yesterday at White Plains, 25 to 0. Clinton's first score came in the opening quarter, when White Plains had lost the ball on downs on their own thirty-third yard line.

Clinton's second touchdown, which came in the next quarter, was the result of a forward pass, Friedman to Galbraith, which netted twenty yards. After three cracks at the White Plains line Galbraith went over from the five yard line. Again Galbraith failed to kick the goal.

Clinton's second touchdown, which came in the next quarter, was the result of a forward pass, Friedman to Galbraith, which netted twenty yards. After three cracks at the White Plains line Galbraith went over from the five yard line. Again Galbraith failed to kick the goal.

Robb's Costly Fumble

After the resumption of play following the Columbia touchdown in the second period Zink punted to Lieut. Robb on Columbia's 25 yard line. It had started to snow, and the ball was wet and slippery. Lieut. Robb fumbled a high pass from Fargo and made a desperate dive for the ball. It eluded his grasp and McGee captured it for the Amherst team. McGee ran with the ball on Columbia's 10 yard line. On the fourth smash Zink went over for the touchdown and kicked the goal that completed Amherst's scoring.

Lieut. Robb cut loose again in the third period and regained the 7 points Amherst made on his fumble. Amherst lost the ball on downs on Columbia's 25 yard line. Lieut. Robb fumbled in his favorite skin tackle play, knifed through the Amherst front for twenty-five yards. Then he got away beautifully, 40 yards forward pass to Shaw, Charley ran over bounds on Amherst's 6 yard line. Shaw and Zychinski pounded the front for short gains, and then Lieut. Robb was catapulted over the touchdown. Stevens kicked goal.

Almost as striking a feature as the play of Lieut. Robb was the all around play of Zink. Amherst's star player and Zink is the man. He bore the brunt of the Purple attack, did all his punting, got away the forward passes and ran the ball. He was a tower of strength. It was mainly Zink who was responsible for Shaw's failure to gain. Zink watched Charley with a wary eye, and he seemed almost uncanny in the way he seemed to sense the Columbia plays and break through and "spill" Shaw.

ST. JOHN'S NO MATCH CAMP UPTON BEATS FOR FORDHAM MEN

Brooklyn Collegians Return to Football After 10 Years and Lose 27 to 0.

Fordham defeated St. John's College of Brooklyn in the football game played between the two institutions at Fordham Field yesterday afternoon by 27 to 0.

The Maroon team through the opposing ranks almost at will in the second half, while the St. John's men were haled in their tracks whenever they attempted to take the offense into the first quarter. It was the first football game for St. John's in ten years.

Frank Frisch, the brilliant Fordham back and captain, was the hero of the game. He dashed through the St. John's College team, brushing aside tacklers of dodging others, for runs of second half down. Perry, Training School, the score he took a St. John's punt on his own 10 yard line and aided by good interference ran through the entire Brooklyn team for a touchdown.

Fordham was able to score only once in the first half, when a series of line plunges, and forward passes and a fifteen yard end run by Frisch netted the score.

Fordham took the kickoff in the second half, and carried the ball to the 10 yard line. Frisch then ran for a touchdown. Frisch then ran for a touchdown. Frisch then ran for a touchdown.

SOLDIER FOOTBALL PLAYERS TRIUMPH IN KEEN BATTLE AT POLO GROUNDS, 6 TO 0.

By Lieut. Wayne Brown of U. S. Army, the Camp Upton football team defeated the Mineola aviators yesterday afternoon at the Polo Ground by 6 to 0.

It was a keenly contested game, and the Mineola team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Camp Upton team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of Wayne Brown and his teammates.

BOWDOIN DEFEATS MAINE

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Brunswick, Me., Nov. 2.—Bowdoin defeated Maine today, 14 to 0, with a touchdown and goal by the Bowdoin team.

The Bowdoin team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Bowdoin team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Bowdoin team.

SWARTHMORE GIVES NEW UTRECHT WINS

Big Quakers Avert Absolute Eclipse by Late Rally—Takes Catholic Champions Into Camp.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 2.—In a thrilling football game Swarthmore today defeated New Utrecht High School of Brooklyn, 20 to 12.

The Red and Blue staged a comeback in the last period of the game. Up to that time it was all over but the shouting. Swarthmore had led by a score of 14 to 0 in the first quarter. But the New Utrecht team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Swarthmore team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Swarthmore team.

BERRY'S TEAM WINS

Camp Hancock Eleven Scores Over Camp Gordon Outfit, 16 to 6.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 2.—Howard Berry's educated and fearless of football team today, the Camp Hancock eleven from Augusta winning by 16 to 6. Berry registered three goals and a touchdown. The Camp Gordon team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Camp Hancock team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Camp Hancock team.

Zink Keeps Columbia Busy

Zink was a thorn in Columbia's side throughout the game. With little or no helping interference from his backs the Amherst quarterback repeatedly cut through the Columbia line or slipped around the ends for big gains. It did not take Columbia long to sense that Zink was the man to watch. They tried to stop him, but he was too good for them. He was a tower of strength. It was mainly Zink who was responsible for Shaw's failure to gain. Zink watched Charley with a wary eye, and he seemed almost uncanny in the way he seemed to sense the Columbia plays and break through and "spill" Shaw.

PLAY ELECTION DAY

A double header will be played Tuesday afternoon at Fordham Oval, Glimmer, between the Farmers and the Tietjen & Lang team.

The Farmers team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Tietjen & Lang team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Tietjen & Lang team.

CAMP VAIL BEATS ELEVEN FROM DIX

Football Battle Results in Score of 26 to 0.

The Camp Vail eleven, which meets Edwin Charley Brockley's naval transports at the Polo Grounds next Saturday, tuned up for that contest by beating Camp Dix by 26 to 0 in a football game at Camp Vail yesterday.

The Camp Vail team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Camp Vail team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Camp Vail team.

INDIANA IS DEFEATED

Immunapolis, Nov. 2.—The football team from Camp Zachary Taylor defeated Indiana today by 7 to 3. All the scoring was done in the second period, the other periods being played largely for time.

The Indiana team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Camp Zachary Taylor team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Camp Zachary Taylor team.

PENN STATE IS TIED

Special Dispatch to The Sun. State College, Pa., Nov. 2.—The Washington Redskins today tied the Penn State on Beaver Field here today in a hard fought and brilliantly played football game, 6 to 6. Neither team kicked the goal.

The Penn State team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Washington Redskins team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Washington Redskins team.

DEVEN'S BEATS BROWN

Soldiers Are Much the Heavier and Triumph by 20 to 7.

The Camp Deven's team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Brown University team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Brown University team.

BOSTON COLLEGE SCORES

Gets Lone Touchdown in Game With Norwich.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. Boston, Nov. 2.—Boston College defeated Norwich University today by 6 to 0 at football this afternoon. The touchdown came in the first period. Following a series of line smashing plays Corrigan took the ball on a direct pass from the backfield and went over for a touchdown from the 4 yard line. Norwich in the final period carried the ball to the 15 yard line, only to be held for a loss.

The Boston College team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Boston College team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Boston College team.

MIDDIES EASILY BEAT SAILORMEN

Pile Up 66 to 0 Score Against St. Helen.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 2.—The Midshipmen had no difficulty this afternoon in winning from the Bluejackets team of the St. Helen Training Station by a score of 66 to 0. The visitors worked gamely, but did not class with their opponents. The local lads ran up 46 points in the first half and 20 in the second. The score was 66 to 0 at the end of the game.

The Midshipmen team showed great courage and determination. In the end, however, the Midshipmen team emerged as the victors, thanks to the heroics of the Midshipmen team.
